CLASS SONG

(Tune: Sugartime)

Study in the morning, study in the evening, study most all the time

That's the way we get ready for graduation time.

Books that we ponder, books about yonder, books on the heavy line

That's what we have to study before graduation time.

Understanding theorems and learning poems too

Gaining speed in typing are among things we do

Study in the morning, study in the evening, study most all the time,

That's the way we get ready for graduation time.

Friends in the morning, friends in the evening, friends for our whole lifetime,

How we hate to leave them at graduation time.

Activities train us, parties entertain us, plenty along the line,

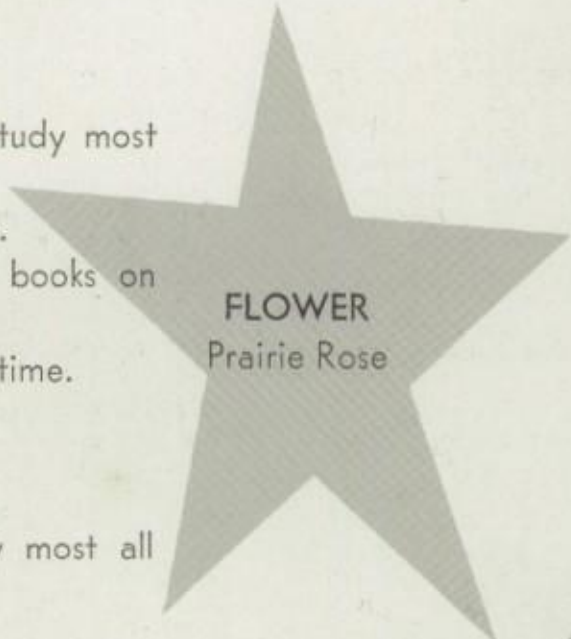

Made the days go flying toward graduation time.

Football games and track meets . . . future teachers too

These with plays and parties give plenty to do

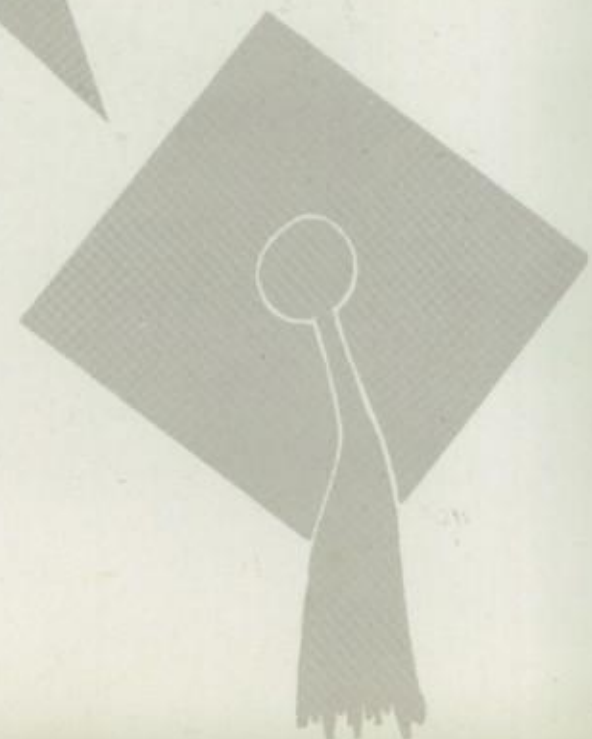

Honors now presented, fun and work are ended, nothing more in our rhyme

We have all attained it—OUR GRADUATION TIME.

Student Council Guides School

Seated: F. Harriet, R. Falxa, Miss Lutzke, Sponsor, R. White, S. Streeter. Standing: R. Lewis, L. Pitsch, K. Jones, C. Kaltenbach, R. McBride, D. Skiles, R. Holt, R. Vanderhoff.

The student council was busy this year. They sponsored two talent shows during the school year. They also sponsored a ping-pong tournament between members of the student body and the faculty.

Miss Jane Lutzke, Student Council Sponsor.

Teachers participate in talent show.

Red Cross Has Active Year

Bookcase financed by the Junior Red Cross for the Gray Ladies.

The Junior Red Cross sponsored a dance last fall and cleared $15.75, which they gave to the World Children's Fund. They made 325 nut cups for the veterans Hospital in Sheridan and bean bags for the State Training School in Lander. A successful membership campaign was waged in JCHS. The book cart for the Gray Ladies at the local hospital was made by Denis Harriet, a Sophomore representative.

First row: R. Inkster, D. Harriet, B. Ahern, C. Adams, T. Mauck.
Second row: P. Skiles, K. Cotteral, C. Newcomer, E. Hoyer, Miss Olsen, Sponsor.

Mystery Gives Chills

Standing: L. Falxa, D. Falxa, J. Brock, J. Kenfield, P. Greenleaf, F. Schrater, F. Rosenthal, B. Ahern, G. Matthews, C. Newcomer, W. McLaughlin, F. Harriet, S. Hecht. Seated: Miss May, Director, A. Cortner, W. Ritchey, F. Warburton, S. Brooks, P. Maggard, C. Kaltenbach. Front Center: A. Jacobsen.

Suspense gripped everyone as they watched Celeste (Anna Jacobson) in her weird trances and the mysterious sleep-walking housekeeper (Pene Greenleaf). Trying to unravel the plot for the audience were Sheldon Harley (Dick Falxa) and Newton Cooper (Phil Maggard), the laughable sheriff. Jules (Frank Rosenthal) is a negro servant who provides the laughs as well as the mystery.

All ends well with a happy romance between Miss Baily (Sandra Brooks) and Sheldon Harley.

Eeks! — watch the knife!

Sheldon tells his guest of the danger.

Mr. Coed Is Smash Hit

Standing: J. Hibler, K. Jeffers, F. Hepp, N. Pitsch, F. Simmons, J. Orr, B. Lucas, B. Butler, J. Lusher, S. Smith, Miss May, director, J. Robbins, M. Silva, G. Skiles, T. Mauck. Seated: K. Jones, M. Hakert, J. Wiley, S. Streeter, P. Geier, B. White.

Things really pop when the president of Ceder Hill (Sally Smith) finds that Lotus Smith (John Lusher), the rich student who is to join her college, is a boy. All would be fine except that Ceder Hill is a girls' school.

Lotus is a real cowboy from Skeleton Hole, Wyoming. He causes a riot among the coeds. Pauline Pooley (Jacque Robbins) and Geraldine Carr (Manuella Silva) are two teachers who have very different ideas about what is best for the students.

Love interest is provided by Emily Manning (Beryl Butler), a scholarship student, and Lotus, also by Mrs. Colgate-Brewster (Phyllis Geier), Lotus's millionaire grandmother, and Homer Quackenbush (Terry Mauck), the school janitor.

All ends well for everyone!

Miss Charlene May directed the play with Mr. Paul Thompson assisting with scenery and lighting effects.

Emily and Ruby finally come to blows.

Miss Carr and Miss Pooley stand aghast when Lotus says "Howdy Pardner."

Homer and Grandma are headed west!

BOYS' SENIOR CHORUS

They worked hard which paid off. Our boys' chorus was a thing of which to be proud. Besides performing at all three concerts, they also put on some programs for various dinners and banquets.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

A Cappella practiced diligently three times a week to earn the 1 they received at the district festival.

This glee club was so large that it practiced in two different sections. They also performed in all three JCHS Concerts. The girls' triple trio was selected from this chorus.

GIRLS' CHORUS—First row: S. Patch, M. Pabst, G. Joubert, K. Reculosa, M. Hakert, H. Odegard, A. Mennell, K. Connor, M. Silva, S. Hecht, A. Cortner, J. Lusher, P. Wagner, J. Hibler, A. Jacobson, K. Clarinet Quartet: D. Falxa, C. Newcomer, L. Falxa, T. Barker. Sax Quartet: D. Hoffman, F. Warburton, G. Gibbs, D. Skiles.

Bison Tie For Second

There Sept. 11
Buffalo 7 Greybull 20

We played good ball, but being inexperienced, hampered us.

Here Oct. 27
Douglas 14 Buffalo 0

Homecoming! We gave the fans a great defensive game, holding Douglas, number 2 team in the Absoraka, to 14 points.

There Nov. 1
St. Marys 27 Buffalo 0

They showed us by their ability in team work why they were number 1 in the Absoraka Conference.

Here Nov. 11
Gillette 7 Buffalo 14

Our last game, though we wish it was the beginning. All things have to come to an end as our '57 grid-season did, but we finished it in a blaze of glory.

There	Oct. 20
Buffalo 13	Newcastle 27

Playing hard against the Powder River Champs, we were finally overthrown.

There	Sept. 20
Midwest 6	Buffalo 0

A tough and even game, but they got the breaks, and breaks mean a lot.

Here	Sept. 27
Lusk 13	Buffalo 7

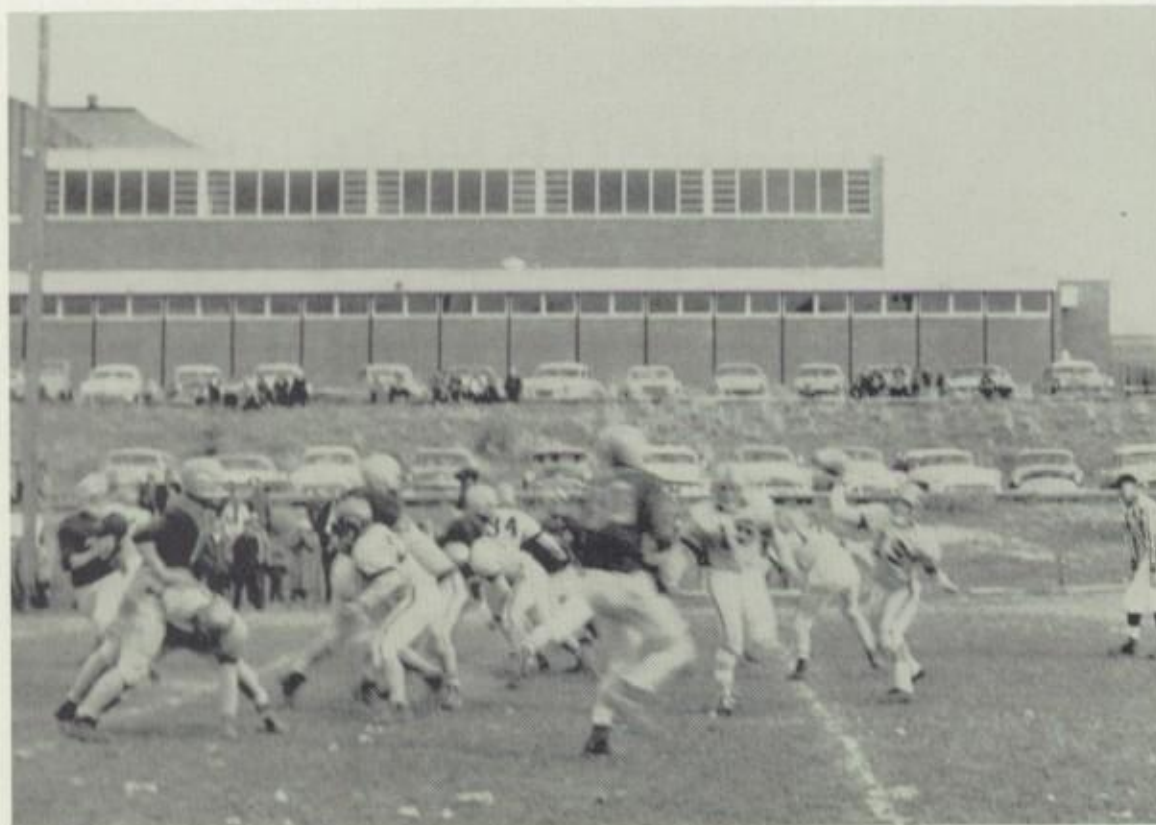

Our first home game, we played hard but ran out of gas.

There	Oct. 4
Upton 19	Buffalo 21

We won a tough game by two points, but it was a win and gave us confidence.

Here	Oct. 11
Wheatland 12	Buffalo 0

Sickness, injuries, and lack of reserve strength hurt us in our second home game.

Buckingham passes as Pierson blocks in last game.

Thinclads' Season Is Short

First row: Coach Lambert, S. Bordarrumpe, C. Orr, B. McBride, J. Knepper, M. Skurok. Second row: H. Ross, J. Terry, L. Pitsch, G. Skiles, W. Myhre, R. Garland, J. O'Rourke.

The thinclads this year have had to fight the weather all season long. They have only entered two meets, one with Casper where they were unable to score, and the other at Newcastle where they scored $34\frac{1}{4}$ points. Only two boys qualified for a track letter. They were Gary Skiles, who placed 2nd in the low hurdles, and Fred Hepp, who placed 2nd in the shot, 3rd in the discus, 4th in the high hurdles and tied for 4th in the high jump and low hurdles. Other boys who placed in the meet were Butch Pitsch, 4th in 220, Sherman Bordarrumpe, 4th in 440, Wayne Myhre, 4th in the 880, and James O'Rourke, 5th in mile. Boys that were unable to place but who looked good were Bob McBride and Jerry Terry.

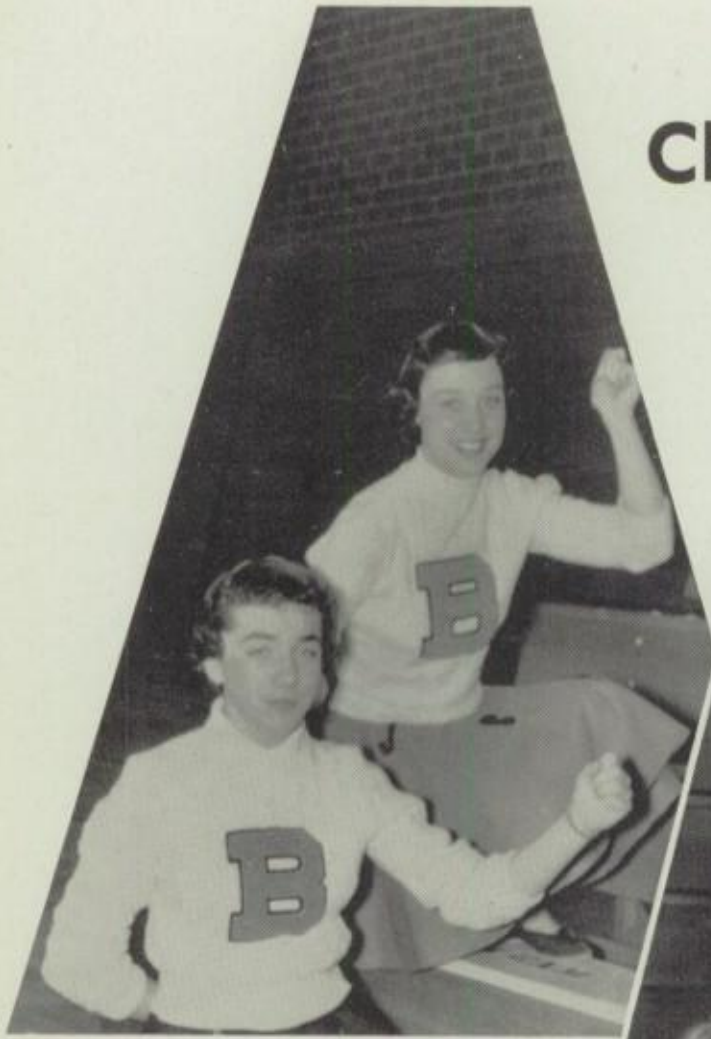

Cheerleaders—B. Butler, B. Lucas, S. Brooks, J. Robbins. Officers—S. Smith, President; Miss May, Advisor; K. Jeffers, Vice President; Felicie Harriet, Secretary-Treasurer.

Clockwise: J. Stafford, B. McBride, J. Terry, R. Crawford, L. Rives, L. Pitsch, F. Rosenthal, R. White, R. Hepp, G. Skiles, T. Mauck, J. Pierson, J. Buckingham, J. Lusher, K. VanNorman, F. Hepp, J. Brock, Coach Grace, G. Matthews, R. Lewis. Inside: B. Ahern, D. Falxa.

AFTER PROM PARTY BIG SUCCESS

Members of the Junior and Senior classes, guests and faculty were royally entertained following the prom by the parents of the juniors and seniors.

Lawrence Welk and his Champagne Music Makers with "Champagne bubbles" floating through the air—were featured at the Loco Star TV Show which was presented at the Sputnik Supper Club (Masonic temple) at 1:30 A.M. Various hilarious acts were presented by the parents.

Before the show a lunch was served and at 3 A.M. the group enjoyed a theatre party at the Sunset Drive-In. A breakfast at the Legion Club Dining Room concluded the affair and all those attending voted it an outstanding success.

Class Day Highlights

HONOR COURT: Queen, Nelda Pitsch; King, Terry Mauck; Junior Attendants, Larry Falxa and Corlet Newcomer; Sophomore Attendants, Kay Cottrell and Ronald Vanderhoff; Freshman Attendants, Jeanne Jeffers and Ronald Lewis. Flower bearers were Cynthia Rose Eisele and John Randall Marton. Crown and Scroll bearers were Kyle Catherine Jones and Robert Trierweiler.

A flourish of trumpets and the entrance of the classes, opened the traditional Class Day ceremonies. L. C. Maul directs this activity.

The Honor Court procession began with the Freshman attendants followed by the Sophomore, Junior and Senior attendants. Following this group came the flower boy and girl and the crown and scroll bearers. The final couple to enter was the King and the Queen of Class Day.

The National Honor Society Initiation was conducted by last year's members, Nelda Pitsch and Sally Smith with their sponsor, Mrs. Jack Meldrum. These Seniors were initiated: Manuela Silva, Karen Jeffers, Phyllis Geier, Everett Bishop, and Joan Trierweiler. Juniors initiated were: Anna Jacobson and Dick Falxa.

Karen Jeffers, second semester Pemmican editor, presented awards to B. Butler, C. Newcomer, P. Maggard, K. Jones, A. Jacobson, G. Gibbs, D. Falxa and B. Ahern. Honorable mention awards were given Fred Hepp, D. Hoffman, L. Falxa, and Pene Greenleaf. W.H.S.P.A. ribbons were presented to B. Ahern, J. Buckingham, B. Butler, L. Falxa, Nelda Pitsch, S. Smith, K. Jones, K. Jeffers, and P. Maggard.

Quill and Scroll initiation was conducted for: Phyllis Geier, Nelda Pitsch, Bonny Lucas, Sally Smith, Karen Jeffers, with Miss Lutzke presenting the pins.

In addition to the Quill and Scroll recipients, the following were honored for special work on The Wyomalo: Fred Hepp, John Lusher, Ella Mark, and Joyce Haskin. Other staff members were introduced.

Nelda Pitsch received the F.H.A. cup which was awarded by Mrs. McBride on behalf of the Farm Bureau. She also recognized Kathleen Reculosa as a four-year member of F.H.A. Mr. James Thompson honored Kathleen Reculosa for having the highest average in all commercial subjects. He introduced Joan Trierweiler as topping the class in Typing II and Dick Falxa as leading in Typing I.

Sandra Brooks, the Class Day mistress of ceremonies, crowns Nelda Pitsch, Queen of Class Day, while the attendants look on.

Our School Year

Mr. Al Clement presented four-year band letters to S. Smith, J. Robbins, K. Jones, B. Butler, and J. Lusher. Other Seniors honored were B. Lucas, P. Bilbao, and B. Van Auken. Librarians Della Skiles and Bonny Lucas were also recognized.

We Made It: Our

Jubilation after graduation

Speakers for commencement were chosen by try-outs. They decided their subject and worked out their own speakers with Mrs. Meldrum acting as coach.

Manuella Silva, the first speaker, presented the problems facing education today and brought out the fact that the problem should challenge all of us.

SENIOR WILL

We, the class of 1958, being of sound mind and body do hereby record our will and testament. Each member of said Senior Class does will his most priceless possession to one said member of the class of 1959.

Charles Adams wills his bare back rigging to Dennis Duncan.

Gary Belden wills Wayne Bolinger his car so he can drive Gloria to school.

Walter Belden wills Sandy Brooks his safe driving technique.

Penny Bilbao wills many a wonderful coke party to Phil Maggard and remember the Alamo.

Everett Bishop wills his F.F.A. record books to Wilson Smee.

Speaking coach, Mrs. Meldrum, smiles to encourage speakers before commencement.

The second speaker, Sally Smith, questioned whether the teaching salaries, little homework, or "queer-duck" ideas had caused the problem.

Nelda Pitsch, the third speaker, suggested solutions but reminded all to keep democratic ideals, maintain attitudes of common sense and don't go blindly at present situation.

John Buckingham wills his cracked football helmet to Dick and Larry Falxa.

Beryl Butler wills Felicie Harriett all the glorious times that she had in senior year.

Mickey Cortez wills Amy Jo Petersen her English IV term paper so she won't have to write one.

Sandra Finley wills a carload of Tersleep boys to Faye Schrater.

Joyce Orr wills her friendly disposition to Willa McLaughlin.

Phyllis Geier wills her Wyomalo problems to next year's editor.

Minnie Hakert wills herself to Jim Zigweid.

Joyce Haskin wills Corlet Newcomer an alarm clock so she will be to school on time.

Graduation Time

Fred Hepp wills his old basketball to Jim Brock so he can practice his free throws.

Bob Hepp wills Joyce Miller his book entitled "helpful hints to the married person."

Jane Hibler wills her clarinet playing ability to Pene Greenleaf and Sandra Brooks.

Evelyn Hoyer wills her sheep-lined jeep to Wanda Ritchey so she can get to school on cold mornings.

Karen Jeffers wills her quiet easy going manner to Sherry Butler.

Raymond Jeffers wills all his fun on F.F.A. field trips to Dennis Shambaugh.

Bill Johnson wills his ability to make excuses to Mike Belden and Ken Robertson.

Katheryn Jones wills her first cornet chair to Jack Brock.

Bonny Lucas wills Sharon Hecht her ability to get along with Mr. Clement in band.

John Lusher wills his car and all its passengers to Don Grotts.
